MEET THE VISIONARY

KIDAR BANSAL

Extensive experience, everlasting social connections and detailed approach to work; is what defines him. With many other successful ventures in his lifetime, Kidar Bansal is the man behind this most trusted brand name of Noida known as CRMK today.

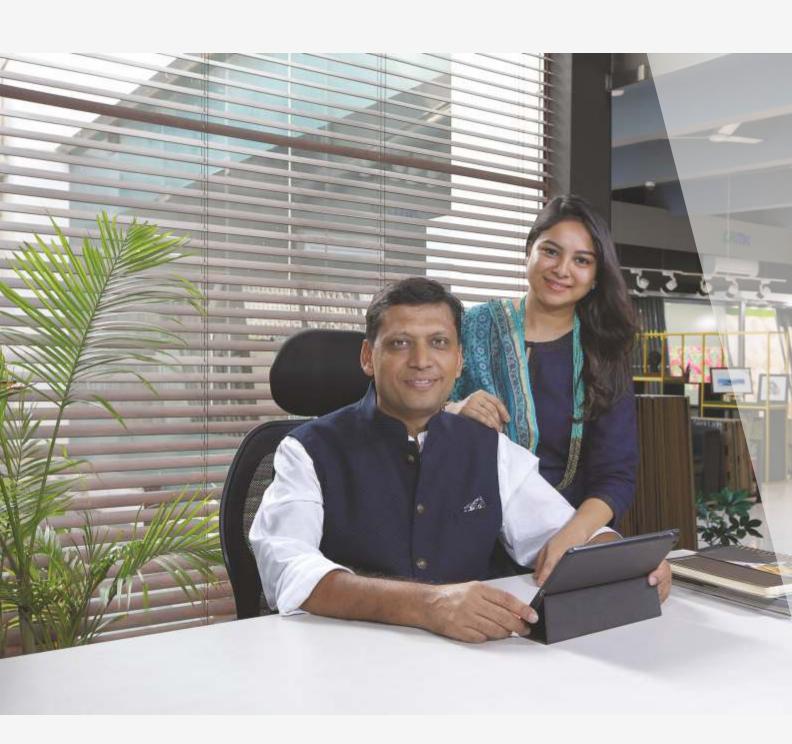

"God has been kind. I worked very hard but also got great results in return," he says. "We had never advertised," he says, "but thanks to the quality of service and products we provide, the company has a loyal customer bases which has and is still growing by the word of mouth publicity."

VISION & MISSION

For some, it is a sale and for us, it is the beginning of a valued relationship. At the heart of all we do, lie the aspirations of the customer. We first understand what they seek, then craft an immersive experience for them. Our proposals are always of the highest quality, paired with extensive knowledge and counsel, rounded off from end to end with finesse.

MAHESH BANSAL

Managing Director

He has been the face of the organization for years now. With his charming personality and flawless networking skills, he has given a different dimension to CRMK. His aim is to build a preferred brand, focused on the customers, enriched with the values passed on by his father.

"Those who are inclined towards a luxurious and sophisticated bathing experience, along with durability and style, will surely find our showrooms quite interesting." he says about his retail section.

VARSHABANSAL

After joining the family, she took up the designer tiles section hands on for years now. She curates for the CRMK designer tiles studio at sector 104, Noida and makes sure that the organization is a complete solution for all the bathroom requirements of a home owner.

"Every single day at CRMK fascinates me. The more I meet our customers the more I get inspired to meet up to their expectations. I believe we as CRMK, have a responsibility to offer best solutions. Therefore, we constantly handpick the products with class, originality and quality to give you nothing but the best."
